Helping you to love and be proud of your car

DK-Schweizer Exotics is our natural respond to UAE needs, as we in DK-Schweizer put our customer desires on the top of our to do list.

That's why we developed the Exotics line, opened our new fully equipped workshop as a one stop Spa for your car, where we will change the exterior color and the interior upholstery of your car. And to deliver 100% product and service, we had assembled a team of qualified and experienced installers and source the best material from the European market.

We can proudly states to our customers that our Vinyl are all sourced from Germany, our leather from Pasubio SpA Italy, and our Alcantara is directly from Alcantara Italy.

Clear Foil Paint Protection

It is the ultimate way to protect the beauty of your car's original paint and maintain its value. Being 100% clear transparent, you will be able to show the beauty of the original paint while protecting your car from the stone chips, abrasions, minor scratches and UV bleaching, keeping your car flawless.

Color Change Foil

We don't only provide the usual colors that paint can do, as we offer special Exotics colors that can't be done by paint which will give your car that unique & special look without the hassle of spraying, 100% removable and will also protect the original paint.

Car Designs

It's the way that we mix your high class taste with our experience and knowledge to give your car a simple touch or a full turn over design to make it an eye catcher in the street.

100% removable and can be done in no time for any special event

Leather Upholstery

The highest quality Nappa Leather sourced from the best leather tannery in the world namely Pasubio S.P.A, Louis Schweizer, Bridge of Weir Leather and Elmo Leather. Coupled with the best installation quality, we will enhance your car interior into a different level of perfection and comfort

Alcantara Upholstery

Timeless elegance, distinction and sensory appeal. Combined with innovation, high-tech applications, versatility, and a pleasant feel. These are all features of Alcantara®
